Department Information Form

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Department</th>
<th>International Relations</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Department Head</td>
<td>Assoc. Prof. Dr. Betül KARAGÖZ</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Aims of Department
- To provide education about; history of international system, how the economic, political and legal structure of system works, the mutual and multilateral relations between the states and Turkey’s political position and foreign relations.
- To educate the students towards an intellectual background that enables them to analyze with carrying out research and keeping up with contemporary world politics.

Objectives of Department
- To improve students’ skills and knowledge towards a level to work in international private-public organizations and institutions;
- To improve students’ skills and knowledge towards a level necessary to be employed in Ministry of Foreign Affairs and other relevant units of organizations or institutions;
- To give the skills for multi-dimensional foreign policy analysis.
- To provide the problem solving capability with an interdisciplinary approach.
- To bring the students in analytical thinking and mastery of explanation of their opinions.

Learning Outcomes
- Should be able to apply the information obtained from subjects to issues of international relations,
- Should be able to have intellectual background to do further studies in the field of international studies,
- Should be able to identify the basic concepts of the discipline of international relations and current global issues,
- Should be able to improve analytical approaches for the future by understanding the origins of the political events,
- Should be able to have necessary knowledge of the law in terms of professional background.
- Should be able to have sufficient language skills to use in academic and professional life.
- Should be able to research and be able to use these resources by accessing the information resource for this purpose.
- Should be able to transfer their thoughts in speaking and in writing with the most effective way.
- Should be able to have the ability to analysis and design a process according to a defined target.
- Should be able to have the ability of disciplinary and interdisciplinary team-work.
- Should be able to have the abilities to act independently by using initiative and creativity.
- Should be able to gain the behavior of life long learning.

| Learning and Teaching Methods | Courses
- Seminars
- The use of visual materials
- Team works
- Brainstorming
- Small group discussion
- Task
- Projects
- Panel
- Guest speaker |

| Degree Conferred | The students who have graduated from the Department of International Relations are awarded with a Bachelor's degree in the field of International Relations. |

| Admission Conditions | To have High school diploma,
- Obtaining the required grade from License Placement Exam (LYS) |

| Passing to upper level | Graduates are employed as public administrators of international relations branch.
- Graduates can apply to the master’s and PhD programs |
in Turkey and abroad.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Graduation conditions</th>
<th>To complete successfully 240 ECTS in 8 semesters.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Measurement and Evaluation Methods | • Attendance
• Delivery of reports
• Examination |
